Slave Lake, Alta.

Northern Lakes College hosting Friends and Partners Fundraising Golf Tournament

Northern Lakes College (NLC) is hosting a golf tournament on Friday, September 7, 2018, at the Gilwood Golf Club in Slave Lake, Alberta. Prepare yourself for an exceptional golfing experience in the beautiful boreal forest of Lesser Slave Lake.

The day will include prizes, live and silent auctions, and will conclude with a dinner. Sponsors and those interested in golfing in the tournament can sign up online on the College website until August 20, 2018. Registration fees include green fees, range balls, cart fees, and dinner. The single-shotgun tournament starts at 11 am.

The net funds raised from this event will help create student awards, expand activities to support students, and upgrade classroom equipment and facilities to benefit NLC's entire student body. "Supporting students is a great investment in the regional economy. Most students are residents in northern communities, and the majority gain employment in their home community," said Ann Everatt, President and CEO of Northern Lakes College. "This day will have a meaningful impact on our students from across the region."

The College is dedicated to its students' successes and provides quality educational programs and services, which enable adults to continue their education and improve their employment opportunities. In 2017, NLC proudly celebrated the success of its students: 917 students graduated from over 32 programs including 25 dual credit students graduating with a credential.

Northern Lakes College is a unique and vibrant comprehensive community institution that serves over 50 communities including 16 First Nations and four Métis Settlements throughout northwestern Alberta. The College is a leader in distance learning and continuously strives to enhance the use of digital learning resources to help students achieve their professional and personal goals. The programs and services offered by NLC support the economic growth of communities by responding to each community's individual and ever-changing needs.
