

General Program Information

Once students are accepted to Northern Lakes College (NLC) and have declared their interest in the Bachelor of Education (BEd) program, they must connect with:

- the Undergraduate Programs of Education (upe@ucalgary.ca) from Werklund School of Education (Werklund) at the University of Calgary (UCalgary) early on to go over questions about the program delivery, admissions requirement, and other questions, and
- the Program Coordinator (JardineL@northernlakescollege.ca) to work towards the eventual transfer to UCalgary at Werklund.

Typically, students within the NLC Community-Based BEd Partnership Program with UCalgary complete the following courses through NLC:

Community-Based Bachelor of Education (BEd) Teachable Areas	Foundational NLC courses	Electives NLC courses	Teachable NLC courses	Total NLC courses
Early Childhood Education	6	5	5 +3 UCalgary	16
English Language Arts	6	5	8	19
Social Studies	6	5	8	19
Social Studies: Revitalization of Indigenous Languages	6	5	7 +1 UCalgary	18
Other	Contact UCalgary (upe@ucalgary.ca)

Students will complete their EDUC courses and practicums with UCalgary. Explore the EDUC course descriptions homepage.

It's important to know that students are not guaranteed admission into UCalgary. They must be living not in vicinity to a large center. Therefore, anytime they are taking courses towards a program they are not yet in (i.e., shadowing); there is a risk.

Program Options (UCalgary)

If a student is NOT currently a UCalgary student:

- All students, who don't have a prior degree, are encouraged to apply in the first cycle of taking NLC courses to the Four-Year Community-Based BEd, which has a summer intake; it's important when students apply to select the summer term, as if they select the fall term they are applying to the on-campus pathway. If for some reason students don't get in that year, they can re-apply the next year.
- Applications for the BEd Program at UCalgary open on October 1st and close on March 1st, however UCalgary encourages applicants to apply early. You are responsible for consulting with UCalgary's Program Advisor and applying when you are ready to enter the program.
- Students must consider attending the UCalgary information webinar for this program (October). Details are sent to their NLC email and will also be posted on UCalgary's website.
- Once students apply and are accepted into UCalgary, it is recommended to maintain full-time student status (3+ courses per term).
- There is a mandatory on-site component held in Calgary for two weeks every July, once you have been accepted to UCalgary.

- f) While UCalgary tries its very best to find placements in the students' home communities, students must be willing to travel up to 90 km (one-way) to complete their practicum placements. For up-to-date requirements from UCalgary's commute expectations, please visit their website.

If a student IS currently a UCalgary student:

- a) Letter of Permission (LoP): For students who are already in the BEd program and looking to complete non-educational (Ed) courses, UCalgary has LoP deadlines; this LoP is required when students are taking courses at NLC while enrolled in the undergraduate program.
- b) Enrolment can only be officially completed once the LoP is formally approved. Students must speak with their UCalgary Advisor about those deadlines.
- c) NLC course selections should be sent to upe@ucalgary.ca, ideally a couple of weeks before the LoP deadlines. However, if students need to register early to secure a spot in non-educational courses, students are encouraged to request an early LoP from upe@ucalgary.ca in July rather than wait for it in late October.
- d) Students must check their UCalgary and NLC emails daily, regardless of who they are doing their term with.

Planning Courses

After applying to University Studies at NLC, the student could ask the coordinator for the BEd planner to help him/her/them plan courses. This program planning document is a valuable tool that will help students navigate their academic journey effectively by ensuring that they meet the requirements for their degree and stay on track with their course load. Here are some tips on how to guide enrollment:

1. Start with the Teachable Courses: Include courses required for the teachable area, ensuring to have already completed any prerequisites, if applicable, before the term they wish to complete them in. If a student is unsure of their teachable area, they must start with the core courses (foundational).

2. Add the Core Courses (Foundational): These are usually prerequisites for more advanced courses.
3. Distribute Electives: Balance the semesters with elective courses that are of interest and fulfill credit requirements.

Important Information About Prerequisites

Students must meet all necessary prerequisites before enrolling and selecting a course.

A “prerequisite” refers to a course students must complete before enrolling in another. For example, students must take SOCI1000 before taking SOCI3000. Also, to take NLC’s BIOL1000, students would need BIO 30 from high school; if they do not have the high school academic requirements, they would need academic upgrading.

To confirm that students have the required prerequisites for a course, please utilize the University Studies (US) Handbook or the list of US Courses for the current academic year.

Lastly, students must confirm that a transfer credit is not duplicated or an anti-requisite. For example, students cannot receive a credit for a course that transfers as MATH 265 from another post-secondary if they already have credit for MATH 265 or MATH 249 (anti-requisite). Explore the transfer credit search tool from UCalgary.

Students are responsible for reviewing course prerequisites and anti-requisites before enrolling in each term.

Consider Course Load

Aim for a manageable course load each semester:

Course Load	Summer	Fall (Term 1)	Winter (Term 2)	Spring (Term 3)
Part-time	1	1 – 2	1 – 2	1
Full-time	2	3 – 5	3 – 5	2

Review and Adjust:

Before Each Semester

- Review the plan to make necessary adjustments based on course availability or interest changes.

After Each Semester

- Update completed courses and grades.
- Adjust future course plans based on academic progress and any changes in degree requirements.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

University of Calgary Community-Based Bachelor of Education (BEd)

Note: Information in this FAQ is taken from the Werklund School of Education website and is subject to change; please refer to UCalgary's website for the most current information.

1) What is the University of Calgary Community Based Bachelor of Education?

You can earn your BEd Degree studying from your home community. Preference is given to those in rural Alberta. This program is a collaboration between NLC and the University of Calgary's Werklund School of Education.

This agreement allows students to complete the non-Education coursework required, through NLC while taking your EDUC (education) major courses through the University of Calgary.

2) How do I begin?

Applicants begin by applying to Northern Lakes College's University Studies program. Upon completion of a minimum of four (4) courses at NLC, students may apply to the University of Calgary or when they know for sure that they would like to start this BEd program.

3) Is there an application fee?

Yes, there is a $ 100 application fee to NLC for each application submitted. Check the UCalgary website to find out the one-time required application fee.

4) When can I apply?

Applications to NLC University Studies program are accepted for September, January, and May starts. Application deadline for UCalgary's Werklund School of Education typically open October 1st with a deadline to apply of March 1st.

5) What information do I need to have to begin this program?

For acceptance to NLC's University Studies program, applicants must provide proof of English 30-1 with 60% or English30-2 with 70% or equivalent courses. For acceptance to the Werklund School of Education, NLC students must maintain a minimum Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.7. Finally, applicants must be in good academic standing,

6) What do I need to apply?

Applicants must maintain a minimum Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.7, be in good academic standing and must have completed a program or courses of study at NLC within the past two (2) years or be currently registered in the program or course study at NLC.

Applicants must also have the completed pre-requisite high school courses or equivalents, including any equivalent courses taken as part of their NLC program of study.

Applicants must apply to Identified Teachable Subject areas as identified by the Dean of Werklund School of Education or the Dean's delegate.

Courses are available in the currently teachable subject areas at NLC through the University Studies program. Current eligible subjects are Early Childhood Education, English Language Arts, Social Studies, and Social Studies- Revitalization of Indigenous Languages.

Note: Qualified students applying for admission to the University of Calgary must provide all documentation required by the University. This includes transcripts from NLC, high school transcripts, and any other post-secondary transcripts.

Important: When you accept the seat, remember to pay the required deposit of $125 to hold your seat at UCalgary's Werklund School of Education; there will be a deadline for acceptance in the offer letter from admissions, as well as in the Student Centre (portal). Visit UCalgary's website for more details; applications are open Oct. 1 to Mar. 1.

7) Can I use previous coursework towards my degree?

Programs and courses taken through NLC must have been completed within ten (10) years of applying to UCalgary.

Programs and courses taken through other institutions must have been completed within eight (8) years of applying to NLC.

The final decision regarding transferability rests with UCalgary.

8) What if I don't live in a rural or remote area and wish to apply to this program?

Students who are from urban centers will be considered for admission but may be required to do all field experience placements outside of their urban area and be responsible for costs associated with this.

9) I am a current University of Calgary student; how do I enroll in a course?

Confirm with your University of Calgary Program Advisor (upe@ucalgary.ca) that you are eligible to take your non-Education courses at NLC. A letter of permission (LoP) will be provided to confirm your eligibility and that your courses will transfer; make sure you complete the prerequisites first.

Once approval is granted, applicants must apply to the University Studies program at NLC. Once acceptance is received, course selections can be discussed with the program coordinator (JardineL@northernlakescollege.ca) or uscoordinator@northernlakescollege.ca.
