

Fee Deferral Agreement Information

What is a Fee Deferral Agreement (FDA)?

A Fee Deferral Agreement allows a student to push back the date that their fees are due because of an extraordinary situation..

Who is eligible for an FDA?

Students who can provide proof of application for sponsorship or student aid funding and have not yet received approval.

FDA's are not available for Continuing Education & Corporate Training courses or International students.

How can I register for an FDA?

You can email the Registrar's Office at registrar@northernlakescollege.ca with your student ID number as well as a proof of application for funding. We will create an agreement that extends your payment date up to 28 calendar days after the start of the term and send it back to you.

What happens if I don't get approved for funding by the end of my FDA date?

If your funding or sponsorship is not approved, you have the option to enter into a Fee Payment Agreement, pay the fees in full or withdraw from the courses.

Please note that if you decide to withdraw from the courses during the FDA, the early withdraw and 75% tuition dates and rates still apply.
