How to identify eligibility for an award

STEP
01

Identify the awards you are eligible for by the program you are currently registered in: Post-Secondary or Academic Upgrading.

STEP
02

Identify the Criteria and Application Deadline for the award you are eligible for.

STEP
03

Complete your application and submit prior to the deadline with supporting documents.

Scholarship

Cash award that is based on financial need. Additional requirements, such as community involvement or leadership, may be required and will be outlined in the criteria of the award.

Bursary

Cash award that is based on financial need. There may be additional requirements, such as community involvement or leadership; the criteria will outline what is required.

Prize

An award based on a specific outstanding accomplishment or achievement. This award may be cash, a plaque, a book, a medal, or a gift.

How to complete an award application

READ

Before filling out the application, always READ the instructions in their entirety.

COMPLETE APPLICATION

Fill out your application clearly and completely.

BUDGET

If the application includes a budget section, be sure to complete this section to the best of your ability. This section is important!

COMPOSE

Create your essay, letter, or personal statement. Share your goals, accomplishments, and/or any challenges you are striving to overcome. Be descriptive but be brief.

REVIEW AND SUBMIT

Submit your application and documents only when you are confident your application is complete. Have someone review your application for you.

TIPS

- SAVE YOUR WORK for other awards you may want to apply for.
- Consult the Frequently Asked Questions document if you have any questions.
- Always refer to the WEBSITE for the most up-to-date and current information on awards and deadlines.
- Take advantage of the twice per year ONLINE AWARDS PRESENTATION How to complete a Successful Awards Application. If you cannot make the session there will be a recording link available after the session.
